150 Top Alabama Realtors Collectively Adopt an Apartment to Graciously House Families for a Year

Location: Jemison Flats Apt #406 1827 1st Ave. North, Birmingham, AL 35203
(on the corner of 1st Ave. North and 19th St. North)

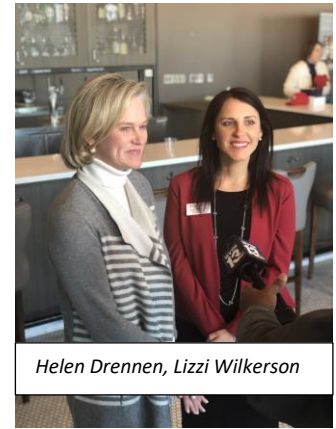

Gifts are special and this one will positively impact many patients and their families for an entire year. In lieu of a trophy or other tangible item, the 150 RealtySouth Top Producers collectively gathered the celebratory funds and made a significant contribution which allowed them to adopt an apartment in their honor which will be sustainable for an entire year. The decision was easy once the impact was identified. The nonprofit organization, Red Mountain Grace, was founded locally in 2013, and since has served over 350 patients and guests who are receiving medical treatment in Birmingham, AL. This successful group started with 2 apartments and now have 22 to serve patients in the Magic City. “The average stay is 47 days, and we rarely see any of the locations available for more than a day or two. Most of our patients are here for heart or lung transplants other risky surgeries, making it a real challenge to families outside a commutable distance from the hospital,” shares Lizzi Wilkerson, the nonprofit Executive Director. “We are thrilled that these wonderful RealtySouth top agents have made such a contribution.”

On Tuesday, March 5, 2019, at the Haven in downtown Birmingham, with more than 400 agents in attendance, and over 320 individual awards, the 2018 Top Producer group was the last to share the stage. Following a heartfelt and emotional speech from Stacey Booth, a brief video, and words from the Red Mountain Grace leadership and breast cancer patient, Jeannie McKay, it was evident that these special Top Producers had made a significant impact across Alabama. “The Red Mountain Grace team revealed the Jemison Flats apartment to us, explaining it is fully furnished and equipped with a secure parking deck, onsite gym, wifi café, down to the laundry detergent - so we knew at that very moment our contribution sponsored a furnished loft downtown, with a view of Pizitz’s Building, walking distance to other amenities would make it comfortable for a long term stay family,” shared Top Producer Helen Drennen, from the Mountain Brook Village office. “Meeting these families was humbling and it must be so difficult to find housing at a moment’s notice. We all look forward to helping many more sweet families over the year,” Helen added. As the Top Producers crossed the stage they were greeted by a family who received housing from Red Mountain Grace, and each agent was given a box cinched with a shiny red ribbon and labeled Apartment Adoptee’s Toolkit. Inside a token key to commemorate each agent of their generous gift, a full-page photo-filled description of their adopted apartment, photos of patients and family testimonials, tips on how to enjoy more giving like meal preparation, or holiday gifts, recovery items, and more. The award-winning nonprofit keeps each realtor informed of their adopted apartment experiences via a monthly newsletter and is responsive to any questions or fulfillment 365 days a year. Richard Grimes, RealtySouth’s President & CEO was in awe as he said: “There were a few dry eyes in the room, but not many. All of our agents treat one another and their clients and communities like family so this collective donation is another reason why our agents are so passionate and caring in all that they do. This is RealtySouth.”
