New life has been brought to the Homewood real estate community. Seasoned agents and new ones – totaling over 16 now - all waited patiently to finally all gather to join the new location in the City of Homewood, AL. “The office space is purpose-built to accommodate occupancy demands and it fits our needs perfectly. We are excited to join our neighbors, Little Donkey, Revelator Coffee, Steel City Pops, Provisions Studio, and Realtime Apps,” sites the Broker, Erle Moring. “Everyone has been incredibly welcoming, and we have so much opportunity to further localize our services by being within walking distance to most of our agent and customer homes,” shares Richard Grimes, the company’s President CEO.
